STORY TELLING COMPETITION (IV–V)

“Imagine... Express... Inspire...”

Puran Murti Global School is pleased to organize the Story Telling Competition for students of Classes IV and V. This engaging activity aims to nurture creativity, imagination, communication skills, and self-confidence among young learners.

The competition will provide students with an opportunity to express their thoughts, emotions, and ideas through captivating stories while enhancing their speaking and presentation skills.

Let Us Celebrate:

- Creativity & Imagination
- Confidence & Expression
- Communication Skills
- Learning Through Stories

Message for Students:

"Every story has the power to inspire, teach, and entertain. Speak with confidence, use your imagination, and let your words bring your story to life."

Our Commitment:

"To encourage effective communication, creativity, and personality development by providing meaningful platforms for self-expression and learning."

Let us make this competition a joyful and memorable experience as our young storytellers captivate the audience with their imagination, confidence, and creativity.

Participating Classes: IV–V
